SCOUTING REPORT ON ANTHONY WASHINGTON: Anthony has all the tools to be a truly dominating Power Forward. He is strong enough to guard bigger opponents and quick enough to switch off and guard smaller opponents as well. Anthony has an assortment of low post moves that can cause mismatch problems for opposing teams. He has extended his range to the international three point line which allows him to bring bigs out the middle therefore stretching the defense. Anthony is a fierce offensive rebounder usually resulting in tip dunks and has exceptional court vision for a player his size. Also he has enough athleticism to block shots and beat opposing bigs down the court. A great addition to any team, he has a team first attitude and a desire to win. He is an intimidator on defense who will change the shot selection of opposing players.
